Privacy Notice for the Green Activities Online Application Tool

Every representative of a company using the Green Activities online application tool managed by Going Green ltd must take note of these terms. By using the tool, you confirm that you have read and accepted these terms and agree to comply with them. Going Green ltd accepts no liability for any damage arising from the criteria presented in the tool.

By registering for the Green Activities programme, you also agree that your contact details may be stored in our customer database.

Databases:

We maintain several databases as defined in data protection legislation. A list of these databases is provided in our privacy policy. Information collected through the tool is stored in the following databases:

- customer database
- online application tool member database
- newsletter recipient database

The participating establishment's public information is published on the greenkey.fi website. We also share public information about certified establishments on our social media channels.

Third parties do not have access to our databases.

We use confidential company information, such as turnover figures and other sensitive information, solely in our internal processes and never publish this information elsewhere.

Cookies:

The online application tool does not use cookies.

Other information:

We hope that you find the tool easy to use. The Green Activities members' site complements the tool and provides comprehensive information to support the application process. If you feel that any essential information is missing, please let us know by email at info(at)goinggreen.fi.